

Jason believes in every job, you need to make sure you communicate with your boss and in his case, that's the people of Colorado's Sixth Congressional District. Servant leadership begins with listening and Jason is committed to hearing directly from Coloradans.

Along with his public schedule, Jason has committed to holding at least one town hall per quarter. He also hosts Crow on Your Corner, informal town halls at local coffee shops and small businesses, where he meets with constituents to hear from them and take their questions.

In making sure the priorities of the office are set by the district, Jason started Lead Locally, a new initiative to tour every municipality in the 6th Congressional district. Jason also hosts frequent roundtable discussions on a variety of topics impacting the community.
