1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “No Political Enemies 5 Act”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7 Congress finds the following:

1 (1) Congress has not delegated to the President
2 the ability to designate an entity as a domestic ter-
3 rorist organization.

4 (2) The President does not have inherent au-5 thority under Article II of the Constitution of the 6 United States to designate an entity as a domestic 7 terrorist organization.

8 (3) The First Amendment to the Constitution
9 of the United States explicitly guarantees the free-10 dom of speech, freedom of the press, the right to 11 peaceably assemble, and the right to petition the 12 government for a redress of grievances.

13 (4) No Federal employee, including the Presi-
14 dent and the Vice President, may violate the Con-15 stitutional rights of any person or group of people.

16 SEC. 3. DEFINITIONS.

17 In this Act:

18 (1) COVERED ENFORCEMENT CLAIM.—The 19 term “covered enforcement claim” means a claim
20 brought by the Federal Government alleging a viola-21 tion of Federal civil or criminal law (including regu-22 lations).

23 (2) COVERED FEDERAL OFFICIAL.—The term
24 “covered Federal official” means an officer or em-
25 ployee of the executive branch of the Federal Gov-

1 ernment, including the President, the Vice Presi-
2 dent, and an officer or employee of an independent
3 agency of the executive branch of the Federal Gov-4 ernment.

5 (3) COVERED GOVERNMENT ACTION.—The 6 term “covered Government action”—

7 (A) means an exercise of an investigative, 8 regulatory, or enforcement authority under any 9 Federal civil or criminal law (including regula-10 tions) against a specific covered person, without 11 regard to whether the exercise of authority is 12 self-executing or requires additional compulsory 13 or judicial process;

14 (B) includes an investigative, regulatory, 15 or enforcement action that is taken without 16 legal authority; and

17 (C) does not include an action taken
18 against a Federal officer or employee with re-19 spect to their employment with the Federal 20 Government.

21 (4) COVERED PERSON.—The term “covered 22 person” means—

23 (A) a domestic entity; or

12 (6) PROTECTED SPEECH OR PARTICIPATION.—
13 The term “protected speech or participation” means 14 all constitutionally protected speech, including criti-
15 cism, dissent, or other protected speech, expression, 16 or association.

17 (7) SUBSTANTIALLY MOTIVATED BY PRO-
18 TECTED SPEECH OR PARTICIPATION.—

19 (A) IN GENERAL.—The term “substan-
20 tially motivated by protected speech or partici-
21 pation” means that the applicable protected
22 speech or participation is a motivating factor, 23 but shall not require that the protected speech
24 or participation be the sole or primary reason

1 for the covered Government action or covered 2 enforcement claim.

3 (B) LAWS REGULATING POLITICAL
4 SPEECH.—A covered Government action or cov-
5 ered enforcement claim is not substantially mo-
6 tivated by protected speech or participation 7 solely because the action or claim is brought 8 pursuant to a statute, regulation, or other au-9 thority that directly regulates political speech or 10 participation, including—

11 (i) section 2003 or 2004 of the Re-
12 vised Statutes (52 U.S.C. 10102, 10101);

1 (vii) the Help America Vote Act of 2 2002 (52 U.S.C. 20901 et seq.); and 3 (viii) titles III and IV of the Federal 4 Election Campaign Act of 1971 (52 U.S.C.
5 30101 et seq.).

6 SEC. 4. GENERAL PROHIBITION ON POLITICAL TARGETING.

7 No covered Federal official may initiate or direct a
8 covered enforcement claim or a covered Government action
9 against a covered person that is substantially motivated 10 by protected speech or participation or otherwise to sup-11 press, burden, or punish protected speech or participation.

12 SEC. 5. AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE FOR POLITICAL TAR-
13 GETING.

14 (a) IN GENERAL.—It shall be an affirmative defense 15 to any covered enforcement claim that the claim brought 16 against the applicable covered person was substantially 17 motivated by the protected speech or participation of the 18 covered person.

19 (b) PROCEDURES.—If, at any time after the Govern-20 ment initiates a covered enforcement claim, a covered per-21 son presents substantial evidence that protected speech or 22 participation is or was a motivating factor in the covered 23 enforcement claim, including the underlying investigation
24 or other pre-enforcement activities—

25 (1) the court—

1 (A) shall order expedited discovery reason-2 ably related to the alleged motivations of the 3 Government for pursuing the covered enforce-4 ment claim; and

5 (B) may, if the Attorney General files an 6 affidavit under oath that any materials respon-7 sive to a discovery request under subparagraph
8 (A) are privileged, review in camera and ex 9 parte such materials; and

10 (2) the Government shall bear the burden of 11 proving by clear and convincing evidence that—

12 (A) legitimate grounds unrelated to pro-
13 tected speech or participation by the covered 14 person justify the covered enforcement claim; 15 and

16 (B) the covered enforcement claim was not 17 substantially motivated by the protected speech 18 or participation of the covered person.

19 (c) RELIEF.—If the Government does not meet the 20 burden of proof under subsection (b)(2), the court shall 21 dismiss the covered enforcement claim or otherwise award
22 appropriate relief to ensure that no covered enforcement 23 claim substantially motivated by protected speech or par-
24 ticipation is able to proceed.

1 SEC. 6. CIVIL ACTION TO SEEK AN INJUNCTION AGAINST 2 POLITICAL TARGETING.

3 (a) IN GENERAL.—A covered person may bring a civil 4 action in an appropriate district court of the United States
5 or the United States District Court for the District of Co-6 lumbia seeking injunctive or other equitable relief against 7 a covered Federal official who, and any Federal agency 8 in the executive branch that, has taken, is taking, or immi-

10 motivated by the protected speech or participation of the 11 covered person.

12 (b) BASIS FOR RELIEF.—

13 (1) IN GENERAL.—A civil action under sub-
14 section (a) lies whenever a covered Government ac-15 tion causes or is likely to cause imminent or actual 16 ongoing harm to a covered person.

17 (2) ESTABLISHING A BASIS FOR RELIEF.—For 18 purposes of establishing a basis for relief—

19 (A) a violation of the rights of a covered
20 person under the First Amendment to the Con-
21 stitution of the United States shall be sufficient 22 to establish harm warranting injunctive or other 23 equitable relief; and

24 (B) if a covered person demonstrates a 25 likelihood of success in showing that the cov-
26 ered person is the subject of a covered Govern-

1 ment action substantially motivated by pro-
2 tected speech or participation, that shall be suf-
3 ficient to establish irreparable harm for pur-
4 poses of emergency, temporary, or preliminary 5 injunctive relief.

6 (c) JURISDICTION OF COURTS.—The Federal courts
7 shall have jurisdiction of a civil action under subsection 8 (a) without regard to section 1346(a), 2342, or 2349 of 9 title 28, United States Code, section 701(a) of title 5, 10 United States Code, or section 242 of the Immigration 11 and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. 1252).

12 (d) AUTHORITY TO ORDER INJUNCTIVE RELIEF RE-
13 LATING TO TAX ASSESSMENTS OR COLLECTIONS.—A 14 Federal court may issue an injunction in a civil action
15 under subsection (a) to restrain the assessment or collec-
16 tion of a tax, without regard to section 7421 of the Inter-17 nal Revenue Code of 1986, if the covered person seeking 18 the injunction demonstrates that the action of the Govern-
19 ment seeking to deny, investigate, or revoke the tax-ex-
20 empt status of the covered person is substantially moti-21 vated by protected speech or participation.

22 SEC. 7. CIVIL ACTION FOR DAMAGES FOR POLITICAL TAR-
23 GETING.

24 (a) IN GENERAL.—A covered person may bring a civil
25 action in an appropriate district court of the United States

1 or the United States District Court for the District of Co-
2 lumbia against a covered Federal official seeking damages
3 if—

4 (1) the covered Federal official knowingly initi-
5 ated or directed a covered Government action
6 against the covered person that was substantially 7 motivated by the protected speech or participation of 8 the covered person; and 9 (2) the rights of the covered person under the 10 Constitution of the United States were violated in 11 connection with the covered Government action.

12 (b) ABROGATION OF IMMUNITY.—To the maximum 13 extent permitted by the Constitution of the United States, 14 a covered Federal official against whom a civil action is 15 brought under subsection (a) shall not have immunity ex-16 cept as set forth in subsection (c).

17 (c) STATUTORY IMMUNITY.—A covered Federal offi-
18 cial shall be immune in a civil action under subsection (a)
19 if—

20 (1) the covered Federal official acted in good 21 faith; and

22 (2) any speech, expression, or association moti-23 vating the covered Government action clearly was 24 not protected under the Constitution of the United 25 States.

1 (d) LIMITATION ON INDEMNIFICATION.—The United 2 States may not indemnify a covered Federal official in 3 connection with a civil action under subsection (a), un-4 less—

5 (1) the court determines that the requirements 6 of immunity under subsection (c) are satisfied; or

7 (2) indemnification is necessary for complete re-8 lief because—

9 (A) the person bringing the civil action re-10 quests that the United States be required to 11 pay any judgment or attorneys fees awarded in 12 order to allow for full recovery; and

13 (B) the covered Federal official dem-
14 onstrates an inability to pay the full amount 15 awarded.

16 (e) CONSTRUCTION.—Nothing in this section shall be 17 construed to invalidate, limit, or otherwise adversely affect

9 (b) AWARD.—In connection with any proceeding in 10 a Federal court relating to a covered Government action
11 or covered enforcement claim, including a proceeding 12 under section 5, 6, or 7, the court may order the United 13 States to pay reasonable attorneys' fees and costs to a 14 party opponent if—

15 (1) with respect to a covered Government action
16 or covered enforcement claim under criminal law—

17 (A) the prosecution was dismissed, the de-

1 (2) with respect to a covered Government action
2 or covered enforcement claim under civil law, the 3 party—

4 (A) has substantially prevailed; and

5 (B) demonstrates that the covered Govern-
